Ancestry of John Day Jr and his wife, name unknown; had dau. Lydia, b. Hartford, Conn., 11.4.1698; d. 2.11.1763, Kent, Conn; mar. 1722, Joseph Fuller.

Answer 9.7.1955 B.L.B

Ref. Robert Day of Hartford by G.E. Day 1848.

Robert Day, from Slunstead Abbott, Hertfordshire, England, came to America 1634 aged 30; mar. Mary —; 2d Editha, son of Mark and Mary Stebbins; he d. Hartford 1648. His will dated 20.5.1648; inventory of estate taken 14.10.1648 by John Talcott, Gregory Witterton and Edward Stebbins; they to help his widow and children.

The will of John Maynard dated 23.1.1657-8, inv. taken 24.2.1657-8 by John Talcott and Edward Stebbins. He named wife Editha; after his decease, leave, etc., to John Day, his wife's youngest son. Names also Thomas Day, eldest son; Sarah and Mary Day. Signed John Maynard. Ref. Manwaring's Digest of Wills Vol. 1. Editha (Stebbins-Day) Maynard is said to have married Thos. Elyzer Holycote of Springfield.

The following has been repeated from an answer by O. C. Day.

printed 3.1.1848, to query A-8101(1) by S. S. Co, asked 25.10.1947.

"John (2) Day did not marry Sarah, dau. of John Maynard, this John had no son. Sarah. John (2) Day did marry Sarah (3) Butler, proven by her father's will (name of her father not given)."

Added from the Mayflower Index. The Joseph Fuller of this query had a line to Edward Fuller of the Mayflower. See Mayflower Index Vol 1. B. L. B.

Answer to A-7710 (above) 20.8.1955, by O. C. D. also ref. 9.7.1955 by B. L. B.

The following are corrections of George E. Day's book, publ. 1848.

Robert (1) Day and Editha (1) (Stebbins) Day of Hartford had 4 children, all born in Hartford, Conn.

1. Thomas, b. abt. 1636, mar. Sarah Cooper.
2. Sarah, b. abt. 1638, mar. Nathaniel Gunn; mar. 2d Samuel Kellogg.
3. John, b. abt. 1640, mar. Sarah (3) Butler (Thomas 2, Richard 1)
4. Mary, b. 28.10.1641, mar. Samuel Ely, mar. 2d Thomas Stebbins; mar. 3d. John Coleman.

Banks Topical Dictionary, 1937, corrects George E. Day, 1848, and says Robert Day of Hartford came from Slunstead Abbott Parish, Hertfordshire, Eng. in the "Hopewell," 1635 to Cambridge. Pope confirms Banks.

Another Robert Day (confused by Geo. E. Day 1848, with Robert of Hartford) came 1634 with wife Mary to Cambridge (see Hartford Times No. 9143, June 26, 1943 and Mar. 21, 1943). She seems to have d. and he mar. Hannah Pengry, removed to

Ipswich and had the following five children

1. Hannah, b. abt. 1638, aged 37 in 1675, mar. abt 1656 Robert Lord.
2. John, b. abt. 1640, mar. 20.4.1664 Sarah Penny.
3. Thomas, b. abt 1643, mar. Ann Woodward.
4. James, b. abt 1646, mar. Susannah Ayers.
5. Sarah, b. abt 1650-1, mar 17.6.1674 David Fiske.

Robert Day of Ipswich, Mass. came 1654 from Ipswich, Eng. with wife Mary in the "Elizabeth"

Robert Day of Hartford came 1655 from Hertfordshire, Eng., unmarried, and seems to have mar. Editha Stebbins almost immediately. They had lived only six miles apart in England O.C.D.

Answer to B-7710 7.7.1956 by O.A.G. DAY-FULLER

Ref. Genealogy of Edward Fuller of the Mayflower.

Answer to A-4961 21.4.1945 DAY

Ref. an article signed "Panama" in the old Boston Transcript 25.10.1933.

Dorcas Day who mar. 16.3 or 26.6.1735 John (2) Fillmore, was dau. of Nathaniel (2) Day (Anthony 1). R.A.C.

Query B-8481 (4) 10-12-1955 A.W.B. DAY-STERBINS

Robert Day, d. Hartford, Conn., 1648, mar. Editha Stebbins, b. Hartford, d. 24.10.1688; her ancestry wanted. Was she dau. of Mark and Mary (—) Stebbins? If so, their data wanted, with list of their children with dates and marriages.

Answers 28.1.1956 W.T.C.

DAY-STERBINS printed in American Genealogist Vol. 31, pp 256 and on, notes by John J. Coddington. He comments on the statement in the Boston Transcript, over 20 years ago, that Deacon Edward Stebbins — Stebbing, was a son of Mark and Mary.

The same reference, pp. 200-201, in the "Stebbing Family" states Editha was known to be the sister of Edward Stebbing of Hartford and names as such in his will. She was b. ~~Braintree~~ abt. 1610-1617 and we think was b. Braintree, dau. of William Stebbing of Black Notely, who moved to Braintree, but we must warn readers that this is not proved. The assumption is that Edward was b. at Black Notely, but there is no bapt. record for Editha. This theory not proved.

Query B-8965(1) 14.4.1956 G.A.P COOPER-(—)-DAY-STEBBINS

Thomas (2) Cooper, b. 1648 (Thomas 1) mar. Sarah —; her name and ancestry wanted; had dau. Sarah d. 1726, mar. Thomas (2) Day (Robert 1). Robert (1) Day mar. 2d Edith or Editha Stebbins, said to be sister to Edward Stebbins. Was she related to Rowland (1) Stebbins? All of area of Upper Connecticut Valley.

Answer 23.6.1956 B.L.B.

Additions to above (answer by O.C.D., following). Editha Stebbins has been called both sister and daughter of Edward Stebbins of Hartford, but she was not named in his will.

The will of Robert Day dated 20.5.1648, named wife Editha Day; children not named; witnessed by Edward Stebbins and Walter Gaylord. That the widow Editha married 2d John Maynard of Hartford is shown by his will dated 25.1.1657-8. He named wife Editha; her sons Thomas, eldest son, and John; daughters Sarah and Mary Day, my wives daughters.

According to an article on the Stebbins family, printed in the American Genealogist, Nov. 1954, pp. 200-1, by J.J. Coddington, Editha Stebbins mar. third, soon after the death of John Maynard, Eliza (2) Holyoke of Springfield, b. abt 1616 who d. there 6.2.1675. She d. Springfield 24.10.1688. See American Genealogist, Oct. 1955 B.L.B.

Answer 23.6.1956 (noted above) by O.C.D.

There were two Robert Days; Robert who mar. Editha Stebbins; he came from Hertfordshire. He and Robert Day of Ipswich both lived for a time in Cambridge, Mass. Robert of Ipswich came from Ipswich, Eng. 1634.

Robert Day of Hertfordshire came to New England, unmarried, in 1635; he mar. Editha Stebbins and settled in Hartford.

Robert Day of Ipswich mar. Mary — who d. between 1634-42; mar. 2d Hannah Perryng. Abs. of notes sent by O.C.D.

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed please find $1.00 for which I would like to have you check your Vital Records on the Day family and see if you can find one Eliza Day Born 16 Sept. 1807, died 30 August. 1856 married 1827, David S. Force Born 19 March 1805 in New York.

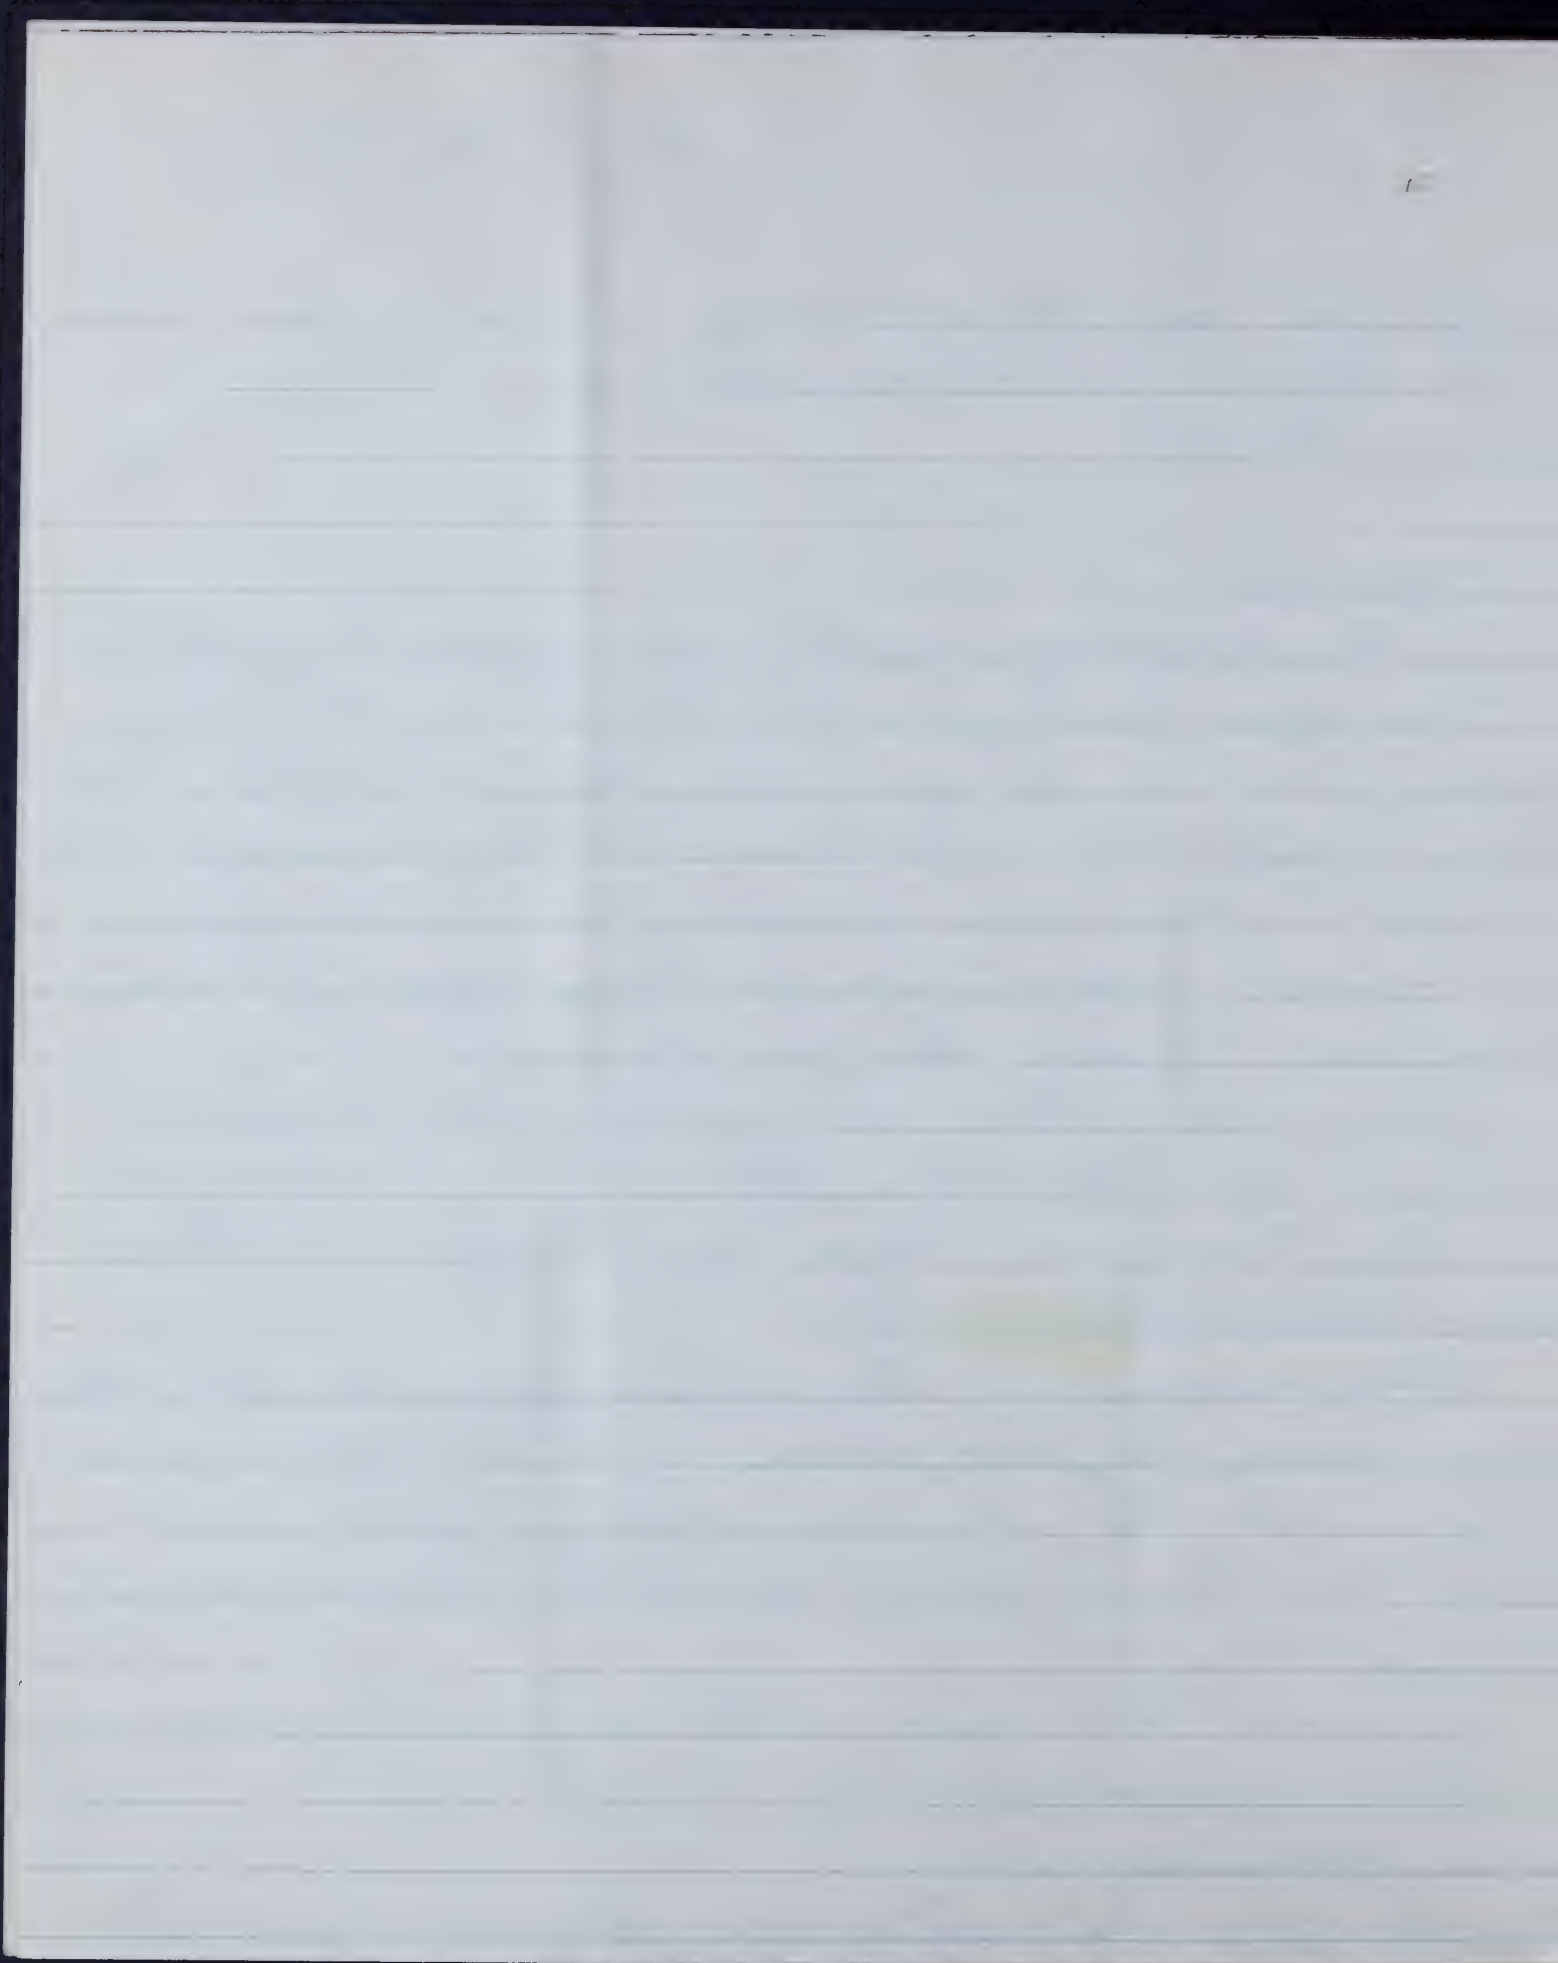

I want information on Eliza Day's parents - brothers & sisters also grandparents.

Also would like information on David S. Force's parents & grandparents. I have a list of David and Eliza Day Force's 10 children and dates of their births.

Also among my Loyalist ancestry are the following Isaac Snyder (or Snider) B. 15 Sept. 1788. Married 28 March 1807 Lovisa Comstock. Isaac's father Jacob, died 1820 at Onondago Co N.Y. his father Nicholas married Margaret Amey.

I would like information on Jacob Snyder's family. Nicholas and Margaret Amey Snyder's dates. Children and parentage, etc.

If you can find you have a record of any of these people. I will be happy to pay for the cost of having these records copied.

I obtained your address from Loyalist Clarkes, Badgleys and allied families - by Estelle Clark Watson.

All the help you can offer in helping me find my family lines will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours.
